

COMPLEMENTARY COURSE – HISTORY

Programme Outcome

The objective of studying history is to connect modern day life to past events. The analysis of past events provides context to modern day situations, borders and tensions. Also subtler objective of history is to learn the mistakes made in the past and try not to make them again.

Programme Specific Outcomes

- To stimulate the curiosity and interest of the students in history.
- To teach the students important incidents and personalities behind our national movement.
- To enable students to understand the present existing social, political, religious and economic conditions of the people.
- To help students to prepare in the competitive exams.
- To familiarize the students with the socio-economic and cultural heritage of India.

Semester	Course Code	Paper Title
I	HIS1C01	India Under Colonial Rule and Early Resistances(1857-1885)
II	HIS2C02	Indian National Movement- First Phase(1885-1917)
III	HIS3C01	Indian National Movement- Gandhian Phase(1917-1947)
IV	HIS4C01	Selected Themes in Contemporary India

HIS1C01: INDIA UNDER COLONIAL RULE AND EARLY RESISTANCES (1857-1885)

- * To make understand students how British conquered India and made its colony.
- * To study major Indian resistances that British had to face in India.
- * To make awareness about various socio- religious movement of the country.

HIS2C02: INDIAN NATIONAL MOVEMENT- FIRST PHASE (1885-1917)

- * To study about major political organizations that formed for the independence of the country before Indian National Congress

- * To understand about different phases of National movement

HIS3C01: INDIAN NATIONAL MOVEMENT- GANDHIAN PHASE(1917-1947)

- * To make familiarize students about Gandhian Ideology

- * To make understand about different national political movement that fought against British under the leadership of Gandhi

- * To study about major social and economic upliftment programme that introduced Gandhi in the country

- * To know about major critiques of Gandhi.

HIS4C01: SELECTED THEMES IN CONTEMPORARY INDIA

- * To make general awareness about Indian constitution

- * To study about major economic development of the country after Independence and its impact on society.

- * To create a general awareness about communal politics and its secular response of the country.